

Mapping Financial Opportunity:

Research, Policy, and Practice for Strengthening the Financial Health of Households and Communities

Friday, February 24th, 8:00 am - 5:00 pm

@ the Kauffman Foundation

Conference Center - Kansas City, Missouri

Panelists will discuss the latest evidence on community variation in financial services, its importance for households' financial health, and the potential roles of technology; regional and national policy efforts to improve access to services for underserved households and communities; and local programs and practices that are working to make a positive difference in the day-to-day lives of consumers.

There is no cost for attendance and eligible attendees can earn up to six continuing education units (CEUs).
